

Preserve DAMSON PLUMS And PEACHES THIS WEEK SOMERS

FALL PAINTING

Fall Paint Prices have fallen. You can now buy the famous Sherwin-Williams Paints much cheaper than in the Spring.

It is economy to use Sherwin-Williams Paints. They have more body and are more permanent than any other prepared paint. They are more carefully blended than any hand mixed colors.

EATON-CHASE Company

129 Main St., Norwich, Ct.

FIRE BREAKS OUT

In attic and old musty closets when you strike a match, a rummage around with a candle or flame lamp. Shoot a streak of EVER-READY electric light into the dark corners and find what you want with absolutely no risk of fire.

Ever-Ready Flash Light 75c to $5.00.

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.

Jewelers
Established 1872
PLAUT-CADDEN BUILDING

Fancy Tokay Grapes at RALLION'S

ONE DOLLAR

paid for your old fountain pen in exchange for a Crocker Inkite Fountain Pen

at CRANSTON'S

DR. A. J. SINAY

Dentist

Rooms 18-19 Alice Building, Norwich
Phone 1177-3

Ernest E. Bullard

VIOLIN
TEACHER

All String Instruments repaired
Violins sold on easy terms

For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Norwich, Conn.

DR. SHAHAN

Marion Block, 328 Main Street
SPECIALIST
on Diseases of the Stomach and Rheumatism

2-4 and 7-8 p. m. Tel. 821

DR. F. W. HOLMS, Dentist

Shannon Building Annex, Room A
Telephone 523

DR. F. W. HOLMS, Dentist

Shannon Building Annex, Room A
Telephone 523

DR. F. W. HOLMS, Dentist

Shannon Building Annex, Room A
Telephone 523

DR. F. W. HOLMS, Dentist

Shannon Building Annex, Room A
Telephone 523

The Bulletin

Norwich, Thursday, Sept. 16, 1915.

VARIOUS MATTERS

The weather for the past week has been the coal trade hard.

A new timetable of the New Haven railroad for the winter will be out on the last of the month.

Miss Buckley's millinery opening Thursday and Friday, Sept. 16 and 17. Ladies cordially invited—Adv.

Next week Thursday evening, Sept. 23, is to be given up to Second church night at the Second Congregational church, Norwich.

Twenty-six pairs of oxen and steers in two long strings passed through Haddam on route to the Berlin fair. They were owned in Lyme.

Internal revenue agents are about the state looking over the different places of business to ascertain if the revenue law is being complied with.

Next Sunday the three R. F. D. carriers of Branford will entertain the state carriers' house at the residence of R. F. D. Carrier No. 1, Irwin W. Morton, at Indian Neck.

We invite you to our fall opening of new autumn millinery, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 16, 17, 18. The Misses Colver, Thayer, Edg., Franklin square—Adv.

Dr. Arthur C. Heublein of Hartford has returned home after a short stay at his summer home at Eastern Point, Me. Heublein will remain until the latter part of the month.

A large number of counterfeit buffalo nickels are in circulation in this state. Some of the banks reported have a number of these counterfeit nickels detected and rejected.

William Dulles, best known as a manufacturer who developed wire glass used as a fire protection in large buildings, died Tuesday of heart disease at Fisher's Island in his 48th year.

The shore dinner pavilion at Ocean Beach will close for the season today. The other pavilion will also be closed the last of the week, the lunch room having already been closed.

A family party of seventeen, including relatives of the city of Ocean Beach, was entertained Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Conestock, at their bungalow at Ocean Beach.

The September Parish Visitor of St. James' church, Foxonuck, says: Grateful acknowledgment is made of books received from Miss Ellen and Miss Lucy Geer of Norwich.

A meeting held and business meeting of the Niantic Public Library association was held at the residence of Miss Bond's Tuesday afternoon. About 30 volunteers were repaired, some being re-bought.

Stonington lobster fishermen are complaining of the scarcity of lobsters, which are now commanding a high price, and many of the dealers have brought their gear ashore for the winter.

At a card party and tea given at the Inn cottage at Lyme Monday afternoon Mrs. J. Harper Bonnell of New York announced the engagement of her daughter, Beatrice to Waldo Banning of Lyme.

Ex-Pastor Thomas F. Higgins of Terryville has been appointed administrator of the estate of his brother, George F. Higgins, who died recently in New York City and who was a brother of M. C. Higgins of Norwich.

There were ten in attendance at Wednesday's meeting of Comfort circle of the King's Daughters, held with Mrs. George W. Quinn at the residence of Mrs. A. T. Utley, the leader, came up from her Neptune park cottage to preside.

A former Jewett City pastor, Rev. Edward Foster, who is pastor of St. Hilary's church, in New London, is an active worker in the cause of the Congregational church in Westbrook.

Pamphlets containing all the fish and game laws passed at the last session of the legislature and laws passed previously which are still in effect have been printed and are ready for distribution at the office of the state secretary in the capital.

Mrs. Harriet McCallan of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of her cousins, the Misses Hindles, in New London. Mrs. McCallan is the mother of the late Mrs. Theodore Burney of Washington, the founder and first president of the National Congress of Mothers.

The New Haven County Improvement league and farm bureau has secured the services of A. J. Brundage and Miss Estelle Sprague of Storrs College for a school of chambermaids, Sept. 25. Two sessions will be held in the Chamber of Commerce hall.

The total asked for expenses of the coming year at Groton exceeds $71,000, an increase of about $1,000 over the budget of last year, due largely to additional expenses in connection with schools, highways and the outside poor and insane. A tax of 15 mills will be asked.

Of the 168 towns in Connecticut, 160 will hold annual or biennial elections on Oct. 4, less than three weeks from now. The towns that will hold elections at this time are Ansonia, Bridgeport, Derby, Hartford, Naugatuck, New Britain, New Haven and Stamford.

The Lyme school board has gone back into the old rut by taking the school children away from the trolley and having them collected by the bus as of old. Many of the parents are quite indignant about the change. The board's excuse is that the trolley increased the fare—Middletown Press.

In addition to the regular town elections in October, a vote will be taken in these towns on a proposed amendment to the state constitution concerning the mileage of members of the general assembly, already approved by the legislature, and needing only ratification by popular vote to become law.

The republican caucus in the Middletown town hall Monday evening was a perfect love feast inasmuch as there was no contest for any of the town offices, with the exception of registrar of voters. The ticket nominated included, for town clerk, James W. Connolly, formerly of the late Rev. J. B. Connolly, formerly of Uncasville.

The funeral of Dr. John E. Shepard, who died at his summer home at South Woodstock, Monday, was held at the Second Congregational church, Brooklyn, N. Y. Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Burial will be in the family plot at Friends' burial ground, Falmouth, Penn., this (Thursday) morning.

Wethersfield—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newton Griswold of Wethersfield announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jennette Welles Griswold, to Alfred William Mucklow of Hartford.

PERSONALS

Mrs. John Evelyn is ill at her home on Union street.

George L. Yeomans attended the funeral of John Nolan in Baltic-Monday.

Miss Jennie F. Kelleher has been in New York on a business trip this week.

Miss Elizabeth McCabe has spent several days in New York this week, on business.

Mrs. Thomas W. Riley and daughter, Teresa Anna, have returned after spending a week in Hartford.

Lincoln W. Harding has been spending a few days with his brothers, R. Mather Harding in Preston City.

Andrew Atha and Percy Marquardt of Groton returned Wednesday to their studies at the Norwich Free Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson H. Moore, Jr., and daughter Evelyn M. Satchell, are spending two weeks at Tree Top, Westgreen Point.

Harry Schulman, a student at Newton Theological seminary, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Fields of Broadway this week.

Miss Marie Joyce of Lacombe, N. H., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Wall of East Hampton, is making a visit in Norwich.

Boys' Secretary J. H. Ely returned to duty at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday afternoon, after a week's vacation with relatives in Holyoke.

Dist. Supt. G. G. Scrivener has returned from his vacation and will have a short stay at his summer home at Eastern Point, Me. Heublein will remain until the latter part of the month.

A large number of counterfeit buffalo nickels are in circulation in this state. Some of the banks reported have a number of these counterfeit nickels detected and rejected.

William Dulles, best known as a manufacturer who developed wire glass used as a fire protection in large buildings, died Tuesday of heart disease at Fisher's Island in his 48th year.

The shore dinner pavilion at Ocean Beach will close for the season today. The other pavilion will also be closed the last of the week, the lunch room having already been closed.

A family party of seventeen, including relatives of the city of Ocean Beach, was entertained Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Conestock, at their bungalow at Ocean Beach.

The September Parish Visitor of St. James' church, Foxonuck, says: Grateful acknowledgment is made of books received from Miss Ellen and Miss Lucy Geer of Norwich.

A meeting held and business meeting of the Niantic Public Library association was held at the residence of Miss Bond's Tuesday afternoon. About 30 volunteers were repaired, some being re-bought.

Stonington lobster fishermen are complaining of the scarcity of lobsters, which are now commanding a high price, and many of the dealers have brought their gear ashore for the winter.

At a card party and tea given at the Inn cottage at Lyme Monday afternoon Mrs. J. Harper Bonnell of New York announced the engagement of her daughter, Beatrice to Waldo Banning of Lyme.

Ex-Pastor Thomas F. Higgins of Terryville has been appointed administrator of the estate of his brother, George F. Higgins, who died recently in New York City and who was a brother of M. C. Higgins of Norwich.

There were ten in attendance at Wednesday's meeting of Comfort circle of the King's Daughters, held with Mrs. George W. Quinn at the residence of Mrs. A. T. Utley, the leader, came up from her Neptune park cottage to preside.

A former Jewett City pastor, Rev. Edward Foster, who is pastor of St. Hilary's church, in New London, is an active worker in the cause of the Congregational church in Westbrook.

Pamphlets containing all the fish and game laws passed at the last session of the legislature and laws passed previously which are still in effect have been printed and are ready for distribution at the office of the state secretary in the capital.

Mrs. Harriet McCallan of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of her cousins, the Misses Hindles, in New London. Mrs. McCallan is the mother of the late Mrs. Theodore Burney of Washington, the founder and first president of the National Congress of Mothers.

The New Haven County Improvement league and farm bureau has secured the services of A. J. Brundage and Miss Estelle Sprague of Storrs College for a school of chambermaids, Sept. 25. Two sessions will be held in the Chamber of Commerce hall.

The total asked for expenses of the coming year at Groton exceeds $71,000, an increase of about $1,000 over the budget of last year, due largely to additional expenses in connection with schools, highways and the outside poor and insane. A tax of 15 mills will be asked.

Of the 168 towns in Connecticut, 160 will hold annual or biennial elections on Oct. 4, less than three weeks from now. The towns that will hold elections at this time are Ansonia, Bridgeport, Derby, Hartford, Naugatuck, New Britain, New Haven and Stamford.

The Lyme school board has gone back into the old rut by taking the school children away from the trolley and having them collected by the bus as of old. Many of the parents are quite indignant about the change. The board's excuse is that the trolley increased the fare—Middletown Press.

In addition to the regular town elections in October, a vote will be taken in these towns on a proposed amendment to the state constitution concerning the mileage of members of the general assembly, already approved by the legislature, and needing only ratification by popular vote to become law.

The republican caucus in the Middletown town hall Monday evening was a perfect love feast inasmuch as there was no contest for any of the town offices, with the exception of registrar of voters. The ticket nominated included, for town clerk, James W. Connolly, formerly of the late Rev. J. B. Connolly, formerly of Uncasville.

The funeral of Dr. John E. Shepard, who died at his summer home at South Woodstock, Monday, was held at the Second Congregational church, Brooklyn, N. Y. Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Burial will be in the family plot at Friends' burial ground, Falmouth, Penn., this (Thursday) morning.

Wethersfield—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newton Griswold of Wethersfield announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jennette Welles Griswold, to Alfred William Mucklow of Hartford.

FOR BREKING DOWN EDWARD HOUSE

Walter Cole Standing Trial in Superior Court—Accused of Shooting Furniture to Bits—Michael Columb Found Guilty of Breaking and Entering Boat Shed at Thamesville—Giving of Sentence Deferred—Jury Was Out 55 Minutes.

Walter Cole was put on trial in the superior court here on Wednesday afternoon on the charge of breaking and entering the summer residence in Ledyard of H. E. Angel of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Cole was arrested on Sunday afternoon, August 8 near the Angel summer residence after the caretaker, Wallace Pierce, had heard shots in the house, which was unoccupied at the time. Later investigation showed that a commotion in the house had been shot to pieces so that its usefulness as an article of furniture was destroyed. A 22 calibre revolver that was used in the shooting was used it was claimed.

At the trial before a justice court in Ledyard Cole was bound over to the superior court and at the trial in the superior court on Wednesday his attorney, George G. Curtis Morgan, State Attorney Hull was assisted by Attorney J. J. Lawrence.

The following jury for the case was chosen:

Charles McGibney, Julius A. Brand, Norwiche; Adolphus D. Zabinski, Chauncey A. Proctor, Groton; C. Sherman, Colchester; Samuel F. Palmer, Uxbridge; Desrosiers, Griswold; William H. Pratt, Groton; Babcock, North Stonington; John C. Franks, Franklin; George A. Kennedy, Lisbon; Albert G. Brown, Colchester; Wallace A. Ledyard, Ledyard.

Then Major Hull said the state rested and Attorney Herman Alofsen 2nd, who was the prosecutor, called his testimony was given through the Polish interpreter, M. R. Malinowski of New London.

Gulomb denied the charges made against him and explained why he left the city after the break into the shed, which was the first time he had been in the house and had his children and that his wife is in a delicate condition.

In rebuttal Major Hull put Clerk A. J. Bailey of the Norwich city court on the stand and introduced a record to show that Gulomb had served a sentence for another offense similar to that on which he was being tried.

The next day the state rested and Major Hull and Attorney John D. Hall for the state made the arguments and the jury took 20 minutes to charge the jury.

In 55 minutes the jury reported through Foreman Chauncey A. Fuller that the accused was guilty of breaking and entering.

Sentence was not given on Wednesday.

Auto Theft Case.

After the noon recess, Leo Wolfe, Edward Colver and William Gannon, three Providence young men, who were charged with taking an automobile in Lyme and running it to New London, were in court on Wednesday.

Before the court, Nolan and Gannon were given their liberty, but Wolfe, who was charged with driving the car, was held in the hands of the probation officer while his case is continued. He is married and is a chauffeur. He claims he was in the car when it was stolen and was about to take it to his home in Providence.

Confidence Man Sentenced.

A case that came over from the last term in which Frank Miller of parts unknown and William Badowsky were the accused, was brought up. Badowsky, who was arrested in Chicago, was sentenced to 180 days in the county jail.

He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They secured his interest by pretending to be trying to help him find a customer for his house, which was located in Groton. He pleaded guilty to aiding in getting $1,100 from Edward Plotkowsky of Groton, who was given 180 days in jail. He has already been there six months.

Badowsky and Miller worked a confidence game on Plotkowsky. They